CAGTC Welcomes New Board Member; Re-Elects Five Directors

Diverse Group of Freight Industry Leaders to Champion Coalition's Advocacy Message

WASHINGTON, DC (May 16, 2024) – The Coalition for America's Gateways and Trade Corridors (CAGTC) membership today elected one new Board member and re-elected five members to its Board of Directors as the group gathered for its annual meeting.

Aimee Heim, Director of Government and Civic Relations for the Port of San Diego, was newly elected to serve a three-year term on the CAGTC Board of Directors.

Re-elected to the Board are:

- Erin Aleman, Executive Director, Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning
- Paul Anderson, President and CEO, Port Tampa Bay
- Shant Boyajian, Partner, Nossaman LLP
- Fran Inman, Senior Vice President, Majestic Realty Co.
- Jason Smeak, Assistant Vice President, Global Supply Chain & Logistics, AECOM

"It is an honor to continue serving as the Chair of the CAGTC Board of Directors, working alongside nationally recognized industry experts who provide thought leadership guiding national policy development," said Paul Anderson, CAGTC Chairman and Port Tampa Bay President and CEO. "In the coming years, CAGTC's continued advocacy will be more important than ever as we build on the success of the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law and begin looking ahead to the next surface transportation reauthorization law. I look forward to working with my fellow Board members and CAGTC's committed membership to promote strategic investments in our Nation's infrastructure, robust federal funding, and increased supply chain efficiency."

The Board, which consists of 19 members representing the Coalition's geographic and organizational diversity, is tasked with the development of CAGTC policy and is frequently called upon to offer guidance and perspective from their own organizations.
